In the tapestry of life, loss and grief are threads that often weave their way through our hearts. When we lose a loved one, whether it be a human or animal companion, the pain can be unbearable. But within the depths of our sorrow, there can also be a glimmer of hope and healing.

For Tracie Thurston, the loss of her beloved dog, Perros, was a profound and life-changing experience. Perros had been her constant companion for over a decade, and his sudden and unexpected death left her shattered. In the aftermath of her loss, Tracie embarked on a journey through the labyrinth of grief, seeking solace and understanding in the most unexpected of places: the animal kingdom.

Tracie's journey took her to animal shelters, rescue organizations, and wildlife sanctuaries. She spent countless hours volunteering, caring for animals in need. It was through these interactions that she began to discover the healing power of animals. She learned that animals have an innate ability to provide comfort and unconditional love, even in the darkest of times.

Through her experiences, Tracie came to believe that animals are more than just companions. They are teachers, healers, and guides. They have the ability to help us understand our own emotions, connect with our inner selves, and find peace and healing in the face of adversity.

In her book, "Perros Lost," Tracie shares her poignant and inspiring story of loss and healing. She writes about the profound bond she shared with Perros, the overwhelming grief she felt when he passed away, and the transformative journey she undertook in the aftermath of his loss. Through her words, she explores the healing power of animals, and the ways in which our furry friends can help us cope with even the most difficult challenges.

"Perros Lost" is a must-read for anyone who has ever experienced the loss of a loved one, whether it be a human or animal companion. It is a story of hope, healing, and the enduring power of love. Tracie's journey is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always light to be found. And sometimes, that light comes in the form of our furry friends.
