- The voice is a natural instrument that should be developed through natural means.
- The voice should be used to express emotions in a natural and believable way.
- The voice should be powerful and resonant, but it should also be flexible and agile.

The Practices of Verismo Voice Building

The practices of Verismo voice building include the following:

- Breath support: Verismo singers use a deep and controlled breath to support their singing. This allows them to produce a powerful and resonant sound.
- Vocal placement: Verismo singers place their voices in the mask, or nasal cavity. This helps to create a focused and resonant sound.
- Vibrato: Verismo singers use a natural vibrato to add warmth and expression to their singing.
- messa di voce Verismo singers use messa di voce, or swelling and diminishing of the voice, to create dramatic effects.

Verismo Singers

Some of the most famous Verismo singers include:

- Enrico Caruso
- Francesco Tamagno
- Renata Tebaldi
- Maria Callas
- Luciano Pavarotti
