In an attempt to escape their pain, Jake and Colleen decide to take a vacation to a remote cabin in the woods. They hope that the peace and quiet of the forest will help them to heal.

However, their vacation takes a dark turn when Jake begins to experience strange and disturbing events. He sees visions of Billy and hears his voice calling to him. Colleen is worried about Jake's mental health, but she is also struggling to deal with her own grief.

As Jake's visions become more intense, he becomes convinced that Billy is trying to communicate with him from the other side. He begins to follow the visions, hoping that they will lead him to Billy.
